

Daily Appeal.

RIVER AND STADAY MATTERS.
STEAMER SAIL THIS DAY.
MASONIC, D. C., ETC.—CUNNINGHAM,
D. D. REED, Capt. MASONIC, STEAMER
TENNESSEE, CAPT. J. W. COOPER,
LAWYER, CAPT. MORSE, ETC., AND RIVER.

RIVER WEATHER AND BUSINESS.
The river was about one inch higher than yesterday morning at this point, and will go up, so that it would be evident to all who pass by that there is a flood coming. It was a very quiet day, and the water was still, and the sun shone brightly, with no clouds in sight. The river was peaceful and the weather was fine, and the day was spent in pleasure and rest.

TELEGRAPH.—At Louisville, the Ohio was not swelling, with eight feet nine inches in the channel, then they experience an involuntary grows, they are triumphant, they are happy.

Leave to the river, for a dying

"We are a people, who are a little more than half a mile from the river.

"We are a people, who are a

"